Dear Mr. Escher,

Thank you for your below records request. Responsive data is attached in Excel format.

I have withheld personal telephone numbers of contact persons associated with each business. Regrettably, Vermont licensing authorities, like others throughout the country, have seen telephone spoofing scams that exploit licensee contact telephone numbers found in public records. Consequently, it is my judgment that the agency should invoke 1 V.S.A. 317(c)(5)(d) ("a public agency shall not reveal information that could be used to facilitate the commission of a crime . . . unless withholding the identity or information would conceal government wrongdoing.") to enforce a general policy of withholding licensee telephone numbers.

Because I have denied an element of your request, the law requires that I affirm that I am the person responsible for the decision, that my title is as it appears below, and that you are entitled to appeal this withholding to CCB Executive Director Brynn Hare, Esq. (brynn.hare@vermont.gov), which you may do by emailing Ms. Hare directly or by asking that I forward this correspondence for her review.

I hope what we are able to share is helpful to you. Don't hesitate to call if you have questions.

Best,

Gabe
